AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO

The following is a proposed addition to Section 23 of the Declaration of Condominium:

In order to preserve the aesthetic scheme pursuant to which all of Park Shores Condominium Development has been built, no enclosures, storm panels, shutters, hurricane shutters, screen doors, awnings or exterior shades may be installed by a Unit Owner in any Unit without such owner first obtaining the written approval of the Board of Directors of the Association. Further, for the same reason, porch walls and railings of Units are not to be painted any color except existing building or railing colors.

Upon advanced written approval of the Association, front or rear porch blinds may be installed, that are a woven bass wood shade with dark piping cord, and are walnut in color.

Upon advanced written approval of the Association, hurricane shutters, which must be bronze in color, may be installed on porches so long as the shutters are installed against the wall in which the sliding glass doors or windows are located.

No signs, advertising, or notices of any kind or type whatsoever, including, but not limited to, "For Rent" or "For Sale" signs, shall be allowed on any part of the Condominium Property. However, during the time that a realtor is physically present at a Unit, an "Open House" sign may be placed outside the Highway A-1-A entrance and outside the Tuerk Drive entrance, and signs may be placed just inside the entranceways stating the number of the Unit then being shown and pointing the direction to that Unit.

No personal property of any kind, including, but not limited to, laundry, towels, bathing suits, ropes or clothing, shall be hung or draped from any stair rail, balcony, porch or window ledge of any Unit, or any other part of the Condominium Property, or the Additional Facilities.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE

The following is a proposed addition to the Declarations of Condominium:

After approval by the Board of Directors of the Association as is elsewhere required, an entire Unit may be rented, provided the occupancy is only the Lessee or members of Lessee's family. No separate rooms may be rented and no transient tenants may be accommodated. All leases must be for a minimum term of at least ninety (90) days.

All lease agreements between a Unit Owner and his Lessee shall be deemed to contain the following provision, which provision shall be irrevocably binding upon the Unit Owner and his Lessee, and the Association shall have all of the rights, powers and privileges as set forth in the following provision:

The Lessee, every member of Lessee's family, and Lessee's guests, shall be governed and shall comply with the terms and provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, of the Unit being leased, and the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of Park Shores of Indian River Shores Condominium Association, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Association"), and all rules, restrictions and regulations adopted pursuant to those documents. If the Lessee, or a member of Lessee's family, or a guest of Lessee, violates the same, the Association shall give the Lessee and the Lessor written notice of such violation(s). If, after such notice, the violation(s) continues, or if the violation(s) is abated, but then later, during the remaining term of lessee's lease, the violation(s) commences again, the Association shall have the unqualified and absolute right, power and authority to terminate and cancel the Lessee's lease, in the same manner and under the same method as if Lessee was a non-complying tenant who should not be given an opportunity to cure the noncompliance. pursuant to Florida Statute 83.56(2) (a) the Lessor and Lessee. If Lessee does not, within seven (7) days thereafter, in accordance with Florida Statute 83.56 (1989), vacate the Unit, the Lessee, or any member of Lessee's family or Lessee's guests, who remain in the Unit, may be evicted by the Association pursuant to the procedures set forth in Florida Statute 83.59 (1989). The Association shall have the unqualified and absolute right, power and authority to have those persons removed by a court of law, in accordance with the said statutes, and to be awarded possession of the Unit. The Lessee shall have no claim against the Association for prepaid rents, deposits, etc., Lessee may have paid to Lessor for the balance of the rent term. The Lessor shall not be allowed to rent the Unit for the term that would have been remaining under the lease, but for Lessee's "eviction". The Association shall have the right to recover its costs and attorneys fees from the Lessor for any action that the Association takes hereunder against the Lessee, members of Lessee's family or Lessee's guests, because of Lessor's failure to control those persons. Lessor agrees that it shall not be necessary for the Association to join lessor as a party defendant in any such legal action to remove Lessee, or members of lessee's family or Lessee's guests, from the Unit. Any written notice required to be given hereunder may be delivered personally to the person to receive that notice or mailed, and if mailed, the written notice shall be deemed to have been made, if mailed by certified United States mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the addresses of the Lessor and Lessee set forth in the lease, whether or not the addressee actually receives such notice.
