Amendment to the By-Laws of Robles Del Mar Condominium Association, Inc.

Whereas, at a duly called meeting of the unit owners held February 27, 1997, the following proposed amendment to the by-laws of Robles Del Mar, Article II, Section 1.A of the by-laws (page 40) was made which reads in part:

"The affairs of the Association shall be governed by a Board of Directors composed of seven (7) members all of whom shall be members, or the spouse of a member of the Association; however, no member and spouse shall serve simultaneously."

*The section of the by-laws which has been underlined constitutes the only change (addition).

Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein the terms and conditions of the by-laws as amended are hereby reaffirmed and approved. This amendment shall become effective upon recording in the official public record of Indian River County.

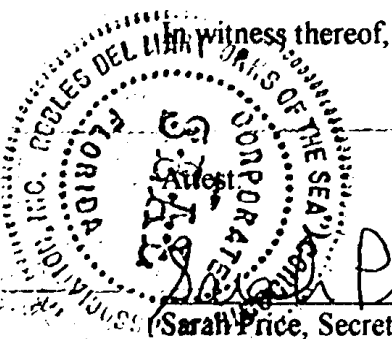

In witness thereof, the undersigned have hereto set their hands and seal.
