Together with this Declaration, the foregoing provides sufficient detail to identify each Unit, the Common Elements, and Limited Common Elements, and their relative locations and dimensions.

4.3 Developer Reservation. Developer specifically intends to sell Units as fee simple estates. Developer reserves the right, however, to Lease the Units or convey any Units in fee simple subject to a Lease.

4.4 Alteration of Properties by Developer. Developer reserves the right to change the interior design and arrangement of all Units, including the right to combine Units, as long as any such change is ratified by a majority of the voting interests of the Association. As to the elevator, the boundary of the Unit includes only the surface that faces the Unit.

4.5.3 Interior Walls. No part of the non-structural interior partition walls within a Unit shall be considered part of the boundary of a Unit.

4.5.4 Excluded from the Units: The following are excluded from the Units notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Declaration:

4.5.4.1 Any apertures in any boundary, including, without limitation, windows and doors, and their frameworks and hardware, and surfaces made of glass or other transparent material and all framing, casing and hardware, shall all be excluded from the Unit.

4.6 Amendments to this Section. This Section 4 may not be amended without the written consent of Developer at any time prior to the later to occur of (i) seven (7) years from the date of recordation of this Declaration or (ii) the maximum time allowed by law.

SECTION 5. EASEMENTS. Each of the easements and easement rights referred to in this Section 5 is reserved through the Properties and is a covenant running with the land in the Condominium, and notwithstanding any other provisions of this Declaration, shall survive the removal of any of the Properties from the Condominium. None of the easements specified in this Section 5 may be encumbered by any leasehold or lien other than those on the Units. Any lien encumbering these easements shall automatically be subordinate to the rights of Owners with respect to such easements.

5.1 Utility, Service and Drainage Easements.

5.1.1 There is hereby created a blanket easement upon, across, over, through and under the Properties for the installation, replacement, repair and maintenance of all utility and service lines and systems and drainage, including but not limited to electric, gas, water, sewer, telephone, electric, cable television, security, and surveillance or communication lines and systems. By virtue of this easement, it shall be expressly permissible for Developer or the providing Utility or service company to install and maintain facilities and equipment on the Properties, to excavate for such purposes and to affix and maintain wires, circuits, and conduits on the Units and on, in and under the roofs and exterior walls of the Units, providing the disturbed areas are restored to the condition in which they were found and that an easement does not prevent or unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.1.2 below, no sewer, electrical lines, water lines, or other utility service lines or facilities for such utilities, and no cable or communication lines and systems or drainage systems, may be installed or relocated on the Properties except as are approved by Developer. Developer may also transfer title to utility-related equipment, facilities or material, and to take any other action to satisfy the requirements of any Utility or governmental agency to which any such utility-related equipment, facilities or material are to be so transferred. Developer reserves the power to modify or relocate the above-referenced easements.

CR 1690PG2288

5.1.2 Once Developer closes upon the sale of the last Unit in the Condominium, the powers vested in Developer under Article 5.1.1 above shall terminate, and shall then vest in the Association. The Board shall exercise such powers in its reasonable discretion without the need for joinder of any Owner.

5.1.3 Developer under Section 5.1.1 and the Association under Section 5.1.2 above, or the Developer's or Association's designee, as applicable, shall have a right to remove any improvements interfering with or impairing such facilities or easements herein reserved. No Owner shall do anything anywhere on his Unit or elsewhere that interferes with or impairs or may interfere with or impair the provision of such utilities or other services or the use of these easements.

5.1.4 The Properties are also subject to all easements set forth in the Master Declaration.

5.2 Encroachments. If any Unit encroaches upon any of the Common Elements or Association Property for any reason other than the intentional act of an Owner, or if any Common Elements or Association Property encroaches upon any Unit, as a result of: (i) construction of the Building and Improvements; (ii) settling or shifting of the Building or Improvements; (iii) any alteration or repair to the Common Elements made by or with the consent of the Association; (iv) any repair or restoration of a Building or Improvements (or any portion thereof) or any Unit after damage by fire or other casualty or any taking by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings of all or any portion of any Unit or the Common Elements; or (v) for any other reason, then an easement shall exist to the extent of that encroachment and for the maintenance of the same as long as the encroachment exists.

5.3 Ingress and Egress. A nonexclusive easement shall exist in favor of each Owner and Occupant and their respective guests, for pedestrian traffic over, through, and across sidewalks, streets, paths, walks, and other portions of the Common Elements and Association Property as from time to time may be intended and designated for such purpose and use, and for vehicular and pedestrian traffic over, through, and across such portions of the Common Elements and Association Property as from time to time may be paved or intended for such purposes, and for purposes of ingress and egress to the public ways. Speed bumps shall be permitted and shall be deemed not to violate any rights of any person in whose favor the easement for ingress and egress lies. Neither the Association nor any Owner shall be permitted to construct or maintain a locked door between any elevator door and the nearest stairwell without the advance written approval of the State of Florida Bureau of Elevator Safety.

5.4 Construction; Maintenance. Developer (including Developer's designees, contractors, successors and assigns) shall have the right, in Developer's and their sole discretion, from time to time, to enter the Condominium Property and take all other action necessary or convenient for the purpose of completing the construction thereof, or any part thereof, or any improvements or Units located or to be located thereon, and for repair, replacement and maintenance purposes where the Association fails to do so, or for any other purpose, provided such activity does not prevent or unreasonably interfere, in the opinion of Developer, with the use or enjoyment by the Owners of the Condominium Property.

5.5 Sales Activity. For as long as there are any unsold Units, Developer, Developer's designees, successors and assigns, shall have the right to use any such Units, other Units (with the Unit Owner's permission), and parts of the Common Elements for model Units and sales offices, to show model Units, sales offices, and the Common Elements to prospective purchasers and tenants of Units, to erect on the Condominium Property signs and other promotional material to advertise Units for sale or lease and for any other similar purpose Developer deems appropriate in Developer's opinion.

SECTION 6. CONDOMINIUM PARCELS; APPURTENANCES AND USE.

6.1 Condominium Parcels. Each Unit's percentage of ownership share in the Common Elements and Common Surplus shall be one twelfth (1/12th) (which shall be referred to as the "Undivided Share").

6.2.1 An Undivided Share in the ownership of the land and other Common Elements and the Common Surplus, as specifically set forth in Section 6.1 above.

6.2.2 Membership and voting rights in the Association, which shall be acquired and exercised as provided in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Association, attached to this Declaration as Exhibit "C" (Articles of Incorporation) and Exhibit "D" (Bylaws).

6.2.3 The exclusive right to use the Limited Common Elements reserved for the Unit.

6.2.4 An exclusive easement for the use of the airspace occupied by the Unit as it exists at any particular time and as the Unit may lawfully be altered or reconstructed from time to time. An easement in airspace which is vacated shall be terminated automatically.

6.2.5 Other appurtenances as may be provided in this Declaration and the Exhibits attached hereto.

6.3 Use and Possession. An Owner is entitled to exclusive use and possession of the Unit owned. An Owner is entitled to use the Properties in accordance with the purposes for which they are intended, but no use of the Unit or of the Properties may unreasonably interfere with the rights of other Owners or other persons having rights to use the Properties. No Unit may be divided or any fractional portion sold, leased or otherwise transferred. The Condominium Documents and the Rules and Regulations shall govern the use of the Properties, including the Units.

6.4 Social Provision Regarding Use When the Unit is Leased. When a Unit is leased, a tenant in such Unit shall have all use rights in the Properties otherwise readily available for use generally by Owners and the Owner of such Unit shall temporarily relinquish such rights and not have such rights except as a Guest. Nothing in this Section 6.4 shall interfere with the access rights of the Owner as a landlord pursuant to Chapter 83, Florida Statutes, or otherwise. The Board shall have the right to adopt Rules and Regulations to prohibit dual usage by an Owner and a tenant of the Properties otherwise readily available for use generally by Owners.

SECTION 7. COMMON ELEMENTS.

7.1 Generally. The Common Elements are located and bounded as shown on the Survey and Plot Plans set forth in Exhibit "B", as amended. Each Unit shall have appurtenant thereto the Undivided Share of the ownership in the Common Elements, as they then exist. The Board shall have the authority to adopt rules and regulations respecting the use and enjoyment of the Common Elements.

7.2 Restraint Upon Separation and Partition. The fee title to each Unit shall include both the Unit and the Unit's Undivided Share and such Undivided Share shall be deemed to be conveyed or encumbered with its respective Unit, even though the description in the instrument of conveyance or encumbrance may refer only to the Unit. Any attempt to separate the fee title to a Unit from the Undivided Share appurtenant to such Unit shall be null and void, and no action shall lie for partition of the Common Elements, except as specifically set forth in Section 8.1.4.

SECTION 8. LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS.

8.1 Description of Limited Common Elements. Certain Common Elements have been designated as Limited Common Elements, reserved for the use of a particular Unit or Units, to the exclusion of all other Units. The Limited Common Elements and the Units to which their use has been designated are as described in this Declaration and as further identified on the Survey and Plot Plans (Exhibit "B"), as amended. The following Common Elements are hereby designated as Limited Common Elements, and shall be appurtenant to the particular Unit(s):

8.1.1 Verandas/Balconies/Terraces. Each veranda/balcony/terrace, other than the veranda/balcony/terrace slab, shall be a Limited Common Element appurtenant to the Unit served.

8.1.3 Heating and Air Conditioning Units and Certain Electrical and Plumbing Lines, Fixtures and Outlets. The air conditioning/heating unit, including the handling equipment and all appurtenances and lines wherever situated serving each Unit shall be a Limited Common Element of the Unit served thereby. Also, any electrical and plumbing lines, fixtures and outlets located in the Common Elements but which serve only one (1) Unit shall be a Limited Common Element of the Unit served thereby.

8.1.4 Garages. Developer shall assign two (2) garage parking spaces as a Limited Common Element appurtenant to each Unit. The garage parking spaces are numbered in Exhibit "B" to this Declaration. Such assignment shall be accomplished by Developer's execution of a Garage Space Assignment at each closing of a Unit. The form to be used in connection therewith is attached to and made a part of this Declaration as Exhibit "E". This form shall neither be recorded nor shall any Garage Space Assignment be reflected on any deed or other instrument of conveyance. No garage parking space may be severed by an Owner of a Unit to which said garage parking space is appurtenant or by the Association, except: (i) in connection with the transfer of title to a Unit, and then only to another Owner in the same building or to the Association, only if all mortgagees holding mortgages encumbering said Unit from which the garage parking space is severed consent in writing, or (ii) upon the written consent of the Owner and the Association, so long as in all circumstances each Unit is assigned no less than one (1) garage parking space, or (iii) if Developer owns the Units affected, Developer and the Association consent in writing. Upon such severance, the garage parking space shall become a Limited Common Element of the new Unit to which it is assigned. If the assignment is to the Association, the garage parking space shall become a Limited Common Element of a Unit only when the Association reassigns said garage parking space by written instrument, which assignment shall not be recorded.

8.1.5 Others. Any part of the Common Elements connected to or exclusively serving a single Unit, and which is specifically required in Section 11.2 of this Declaration to be maintained, repaired, or replaced by or at the expense of the Owner, shall be deemed a Limited Common Element appurtenant to that Unit, whether specifically described above or not.

8.2 Exclusive Use; Transfer of Use Rights. The exclusive use of a Limited Common Element is an appurtenance to the Unit to which it is designated or assigned. The right of exclusive use to each Limited Common Element passes with the Unit, whether or not separately described, and cannot be separated from the Unit, except as specifically provided in this Declaration.

8.3 Conflict. In the event of a conflict between Exhibit "B" to the Declaration and this Section 8 as to Limited Common Elements, this Section 8 shall control.

SECTION 9. ASSOCIATION. The Condominium's operation is by SEA COLONY AT VERO BEACH CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC., a Florida not-for-profit corporation, which shall perform its functions pursuant to the Declaration of Condominium and the provisions of this Section 9.

9.1 Articles of Incorporation. The Association's Articles of Incorporation shall be the Articles of Incorporation attached hereto as Exhibit "C".

9.2 Bylaws. The Association's Bylaws shall be the Bylaws attached hereto as Exhibit "D".

9.3 Membership and Voting Rights. The Association's membership shall be as provided in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. Owners of each Unit shall collectively be entitled to vote in accordance with the terms and provisions set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

9.4 Limitation on Liability. Notwithstanding the Association's duty to maintain and repair certain Properties, the Association shall not be liable to Owners for injury or damage, other than the cost of maintenance and repair, caused by any latent condition of the Properties to be maintained and repaired by the Association, or caused by the elements. Furthermore, in the event that any portion of the Properties for which an Owner has the maintenance responsibility under this Declaration, or an Owner's property or personal belongings, are damaged in the course of the Association's maintenance, repair, replacement or reconstruction after casualty of those Properties for which the Association has responsibility, that Owner bears the full risk of loss. The only exception is where the Association (whether for itself or its contractor) is guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct which causes the loss, in which case the Association bears the risk of loss created by the same.

9.5 Purchase, Conveyance, Leasing and Mortgaging of Real Property. The Association shall be permitted to acquire title to real property and convey the same, to enter into agreements for the acquisition of fee interests, leaseholds, easements, and other possessory or use interests in lands, beach clubs, clubhouses, pools, parking, docks, dockslips, marinas, and other recreational facilities and any other property of any kind whatsoever, whether or not contiguous to the lands of the Condominium, intended to be used by or for the benefit of the Owners (whether or not on an exclusive basis) upon the prior vote of a majority of the entire Voting

Interest of Owners. The Association's authority to purchase Units is as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation. The Association shall only be permitted to lease property with the approval of the Board. The Association may mortgage real property as permitted by the Articles of Incorporation. The expenses of ownership (including the expense of making and carrying any mortgage related to such ownership), rental, membership fees, operation, replacements, and other expenses and undertakings in connection therewith shall be Common Expenses. No actions authorized hereunder, however, may be taken as long as Developer owns any Units without the prior written consent of Developer.

9.6 Acts of the Association. Unless the approval or action of Owners, and/or a certain specific percentage of the Board, is specifically required in this Declaration, the Articles or By-Laws, applicable rules and regulations or applicable law, all approvals or actions required or permitted to be given or taken by the Association shall be given or taken by the Board, without the Owners' consent, and the Board may so approve and act through the Association's proper officers without a specific resolution. When the Association's approval or action is permitted to be given or taken hereunder or thereunder, such action or approval may be conditioned in any manner the Association deems appropriate or the Association may refuse to take or give such action or approval without the necessity of establishing the reasonableness of such conditions or refusal.

9.7 Corporation. The Association's members shall be members of the Corporation as described in the Master Declaration and Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation. The Corporation has been organized for the purpose of administering the covenants and obligations relating to the Sea Colony at Vero Beach Community, including the Corporation Property, the use of which is shared by all owners in the Sea Colony at Vero Beach Community as set forth in the Master Declaration. All Association members acquire the benefits as to use of the Corporation Property and the obligation to pay Assessments in accordance with the Master Declaration.

SECTION 10. ASSESSMENT, CHARGES AND LIENS. The Association has the power to levy and collect Assessments against each Unit and Owner to provide the necessary funds for the Condominium's proper operation and management and for the Association's operation, including both Annual Assessments for each Unit's share of Common Expenses as set forth in the annual budget, and Special Assessments for any proper Common Expenses. The Association may also levy Charges against individual Unit(s) and Owner(s) for any amounts, other than Common Expenses, which are properly chargeable against such Unit and Owner under the Condominium Documents.

10.1 Common Expenses. Common Expenses include all expenses of the operation, maintenance, repair, replacement, protection or insurance of the Properties, the expenses of operating the Association, fines levied by governmental authority, and any other expenses properly incurred by the Association for the Condominium, including legal fees and any amounts budgeted for the purpose of funding reserve accounts. Common Expenses shall include the cost of providing exterminating services for the Units, and may include basic cable television charges.

10.2 Share of Common Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10.4 below, each Owner and Unit shall be liable for a one-twelfth (1/12th) share of Common Expenses.

10.3 Ownership. Assessments collected by or on behalf of the Association become the Association's property. No Owner has the right to claim, assign, or transfer any interest therein except as an appurtenance to his Unit. No Owner has the right to withdraw or receive distribution of his share of the Common Surplus, except as otherwise provided in the Condominium Documents or by law.

10.4 Who is Liable for Assessments. The Owner of each Unit, regardless of how title was acquired, is liable for all Assessments or installments thereon coming due while he is the Owner. Multiple Owners are jointly and severally liable. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10.8.1 below, whenever title to a Unit is transferred for any reason, the transferee is jointly and severally liable with the transferor for all unpaid Assessments against the transferor, regardless of when incurred, without prejudice to any right the transferee may have to recover from the transferor any amounts paid by the transferee.

10.5 No Waiver or Excuse From Payment. The liability for Assessments may not be avoided or abated by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any Common Elements, by abandonment of the Unit on which the Assessments are made, by interruption in the availability of the Unit or the Common Elements or Association Property for any reason whatsoever, or by dissatisfaction with the Association and/or its operation and policies. No Owner may be excused from payment of such Owner's share of the Common Expenses unless all Owners are likewise proportionately excused from payment, except as otherwise provided in Section 10.8.1 as to certain mortgagees. Developer may be excused from payment for Common Expenses as stated within this Declaration or in accordance with Section 718.116 (9)(a), Florida Statutes.

10.6 Application of Payments; Failure to Pay; Interest; Late Fees. Assessments and installments thereon paid on or before ten (10) days after the date due shall not bear interest, but all sums not so paid shall bear interest at the highest rate allowed by law on open accounts at the particular time, calculated from the date due until paid. In addition, Assessments or installments not paid on or before ten (10) days after the date due shall result in the imposition of a late fee equal to the maximum amount permitted by the Condominium Act from time to time. (At the time of recordation, the maximum late fee chargeable is the greater of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) or five percent (5%) of the late payment.) Assessments or installments thereon shall become due, and the Owner shall become liable for the Assessments or installments, on the date established in the Bylaws or otherwise set by the Board for payment. All payments on account shall be applied in the following order irrespective of any restrictive endorsement, designation, or instruction placed on or accompanying any payment: to interest; late fees; costs; attorneys' fees and paralegal charges; and Annual and/or Special Assessments. If payment is made by a check that fails to clear, then the Owner shall be considered not to have made payment.

10.7 Liens. The Association has a lien on each Unit securing payment of past due Assessments, including interest, paralegal charges, attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Association incident to the collection of the Assessment and/or enforcement of the lien, whether before, during, or after a lien foreclosure suit or other lawsuit. Any "Claim of Lien" recorded shall state the Unit's legal description, the record Owner's name, the Association's name and address, the Assessments past due and the due dates. Subject to the provisions of Section 10.8 below, the Claim of Lien is effective from and has those priorities as stated in the Condominium Act, as amended from time to time, and is in effect until barred by law. The Claim of Lien secures all unpaid Assessments, interest, paralegal charges, attorneys' fees and costs coming due prior to a final judgment of foreclosure. Upon full payment, the person making the payment is entitled to a satisfaction of the lien. The lien shall not secure late fees unless the Condominium Act is amended to permit same.

10.8 Priority of Lien; Liability of Mortgagees and Other Lienholders, Leases.

10.8.1 Rights of Mortgagees and Other Lienholders. The liability and priority of mortgagees and other lienholders and successors in title to Units as result of a mortgage or lien foreclosure shall be as provided in the Condominium Act, as amended from time to time.

10.8.2 Leases. Any Unit's lease shall be subordinate and inferior to any Claim of Lien of the Association, regardless of when the lease was executed.

10.9 Foreclosure of Lien; Action at Law. The Association may bring an action in the Association's name to foreclose the Association's lien for unpaid Assessments in the manner provided for in the Condominium Act and may also bring an action to recover a monetary judgment for unpaid Assessments without waiving any lien rights. In addition to any Assessments due, the Association shall be entitled to recover interest, paralegal charges, attorneys' fees and all costs of collection, including court costs. Late fees are recoverable at law, and as part of the Claim of Lien, unless prohibited by the Condominium Act from time to time. If the Association shall bring a lien foreclosure action, the Association shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rent for the Unit if the court in which the foreclosure action is pending determines that the Owner of the Unit is required to pay such rent. Such receiver shall be appointed pursuant to a court order in the foreclosure action. If some person other than the Association acts as a receiver, then the cost of the receiver shall be borne by the non-prevailing party in the lawsuit. Homestead shall not be a defense to a lien foreclosure action.

10.10 Certificate As To Assessments. Within fifteen (15) days after request by an Owner or mortgagee, the Association shall provide a certificate stating whether all Assessments and other monies owed to the Association by the Owner with respect to the Unit have been paid. Any person other than the Owner who relies upon such certificate shall be protected thereby. The Association may levy an administrative charge for the issuance of said Certificate.

10.11 Charges.

10.11.1 Defined. Each Unit and Owner shall be liable for Charges levied by the Association against the Unit and Owner. Charges shall be deemed to include but not be limited to maintenance or other services furnished by the Association for the benefit of an Owner, damages, and any other sums other than Assessments which are referred to as Charges in the Condominium Documents. At no time shall a Charge be deemed an Assessment under the Condominium Act or under the Condominium Documents, but will give rise to a cause of action against an Owner if not paid.

10.11.2 Who is Liable for Charges. Each Unit's Owner, regardless of how title was acquired, is liable for all Charges coming due while such party is the Owner. Multiple Owners are jointly and severally liable.

10.11.3 Application of Payments; Failure to Pay; Late Fees; Interest. Any Charges paid within ten (10) days after the date due as specified in the notice of Charge from the Association shall not bear interest, but all Charges not so paid shall bear interest at the highest rate allowed by law, calculated from the date due until paid. In addition, any Charges or installments not paid within ten (10) days after the date due shall result in the imposition of a late fee of the higher of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) or five percent (5%) of the late payment. All payments on account shall be applied in the sole discretion of the Board, irrespective of any restrictive endorsement, designation, or instruction placed on or accompanying any payment. The Association also has the right to refuse to accept a partial or insufficient payment. No payment by check is deemed paid until the check has cleared. However, interest and late fees shall be calculated as accrued until the date the Association actually receives payment.

10.11.4 Collection of a Charge. The Association may bring an action to recover a monetary judgment for unpaid Charges and shall be entitled to recover interest, late fees, paralegal charges, attorneys' fees and all costs of collection, including court costs.

10.12 Working Capital Contributions. Developer may require that each Unit's initial purchaser from Developer make a working capital contribution to the Association. Such contribution, if made, may be used to reimburse Developer for start-up expenses, or otherwise as the Board shall determine from time to time; however, notwithstanding the terms set forth above, no working capital contributions shall be used by the Association for the payment or reimbursement of common expenses prior to the expiration of any guarantee period in which Developer is excused from the payment of Assessments.

Upon termination of the life estate, the holders of the remainder interest shall have no occupancy rights unless separately approved by the Association. The life tenant shall be liable for all Assessments and Charges against the Unit. Any consent or approval required of Association members may be given by the life tenant alone, and the consent or approval of the holders of the remainder interest shall not be required or permitted. If there is more than one (1) life tenant, the life tenants shall be treated as co-Owners.

14.1.3 Ownership by Corporations, Business-Named Partnerships, or Limited Liability Companies. A Unit may be owned by a corporation, business-named partnership, or limited liability company (the foregoing hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Entity") if approved in the manner provided for under Section 14.2 of this Declaration. This provision's intent is to allow flexibility in estate, financial or tax planning, and not to create circumstances in which the Unit may be used as short-term, transient accommodations for several individuals or families. The approval of the Entity under Section 14.2 shall be conditioned upon designation by Entity of one (1) natural person to be the Primary Occupant, which Primary Occupant and other intended Occupants shall also be subject to approval along with the Entity. All references to Owner or Member in the Condominium Documents as to use and occupancy of and voting and other membership rights with respect to the Unit owned by the Entity shall mean and refer to the Primary Occupant; this shall not, however, relieve the Entity of any of the Entity's responsibilities and obligations under the Condominium Documents. The foregoing provisions place personal responsibility and liability upon the Primary Occupant; such personal responsibility and liability exists notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporate Owner, contained in any partnership agreement of the partnership, or in the regulations of the limited liability company. Any change in the Primary Occupant shall be treated as a transfer of ownership by the Entity subject to the provisions of Section 14.2 of this Declaration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 14.1.3 shall not apply to Developer.

14.1.4 Ownership by Trustees. If a Unit is owned by trustee(s), the trustee(s) shall have liability to the Association in their individual capacity and not as trustee(s).

14.2 Transfer of Ownership of Units.

14.2.1 Transfers Subject to Section 14.2.

14.2.1.1 Sale or Gift. No Owner may dispose of a Unit or any interest in the Unit by sale or gift (including agreement for deed) without the Board's prior written approval.

14.2.1.2 Devise or Inheritance. If any Owner acquires title by devise or inheritance, the right to occupy or use the Unit shall be subject to the Board's approval.

14.2.1.3 Other Transfers. If any person acquires title in any manner not considered in the foregoing Sections 14.2.1.1 or 14.2.1.2, the right to occupy or use the Unit shall be subject to the Board's approval (that person having no right to occupy or use the Unit before being approved by the Board) under the procedures outlined in Section 14.2.2 below.

14.2.2 Procedures.

14.2.2.1 Notice to Association.

14.2.2.1.1 Sale or Gift. An Owner intending to make a sale or gift of his Unit or any interest in the Unit shall give to the Board or the Board's designee written notice of such intention at least thirty (30) days prior to the intended closing date, together with the name and address of the proposed purchaser or donee, an executed copy of the sales contract, if any, and such other information as the Board may reasonably require. The Board may require the personal appearance of any purchaser(s) or donee(s) and the spouse and other intended Occupants, as a condition of approval.

14.2.2.1.2 Devise, Inheritance or Other Transfers. The transferee(s) must notify the Board of the change in ownership and submit a certified copy of the instrument evidencing the change in ownership and such other information as the Board may reasonably require. The transferee(s) shall have no occupancy or use rights unless approved by the Board.

14.2.2.1.3 Demand. With the notice required in Section 14.2.2.1.1 above, the Owner or transferee seeking approval may make a written demand that if the transfer is disapproved without good cause, the Association shall furnish an approved alternate purchaser upon the same price and terms as in the disapproved sales contract, or if no contract is involved, for the fair market value of the Unit determined as provided below. This obligation of the Association exists only if the written demand is made by the Owner or transferee along with and at the same time as the provision of the Section 14.2.2.1.1 notice.

14.2.2.1.4 Failure to Give Notice. If no notice is given, the Board, at the Board's election, may approve or disapprove at the time the Board learns of the transfer. If any Owner fails to obtain the Association's approval prior to selling an interest in a Unit, or making a gift of the Unit, such failure shall create a rebuttable presumption that the seller and the purchaser, or Owner making the gift, intended to violate the covenants of this Declaration, and shall constitute good cause for Association disapproval.

14.2.2.2 Approval. Within twenty (20) days after receipt of the required notice, transfer fee, personal appearances and information requested, the Board shall approve or disapprove the transfer. If a transfer is approved, the approval shall be stated in a Certificate of Approval executed by the Association's President or Vice-President in recordable form and delivered to the transferee. If the Board neither approves nor disapproves within this twenty (20)-day time limit, such failure to act shall be deemed the equivalent of approval and on demand the Board shall issue a Certificate of Approval to the transferee.

14.2.2.3 Disapproval.

14.2.2.3.1 With Good Cause. The Association's approval shall be withheld if a majority of the whole Board so votes. Only the following may be deemed to constitute good cause for disapproval: (i) the person seeking approval or intended Occupants have been convicted of a felony involving violence to persons or property, or a felony demonstrating dishonesty or moral turpitude; (ii) the person seeking approval has a record of financial irresponsibility, including without limitation prior bankruptcies, foreclosures or bad debts; (iii) the person seeking approval or intended Occupants have evidenced an attitude of disregard for covenants or restrictions applicable to the Condominium and/or Rules and Regulations of the Association or the Corporation, by his conduct in this Condominium as a tenant, Owner or Occupant of a Unit, or by such attitude at the personal appearance before the Board or its designee; or (iv) the person seeking approval has failed to provide the information, fees or appearances required to process the application in a timely manner, or provided false information during the application process.

14.2.2.3.2 Without Good Cause. If the Board disproves without good cause, and if the Owner or transferee has made the demand set forth in Section 14.2.2.1.3 above, then within thirty (30) days after the Board meeting at which the disapproval took place, the Board shall deliver in writing to the Owner or transferee (hereafter "the Seller") the name of an approved purchaser who will purchase the Unit upon substantially the same price and terms as in the disapproved sales contract. If no sales contract was involved, or if the Association challenges the contract price as not being a good faith purchase price, then the purchase price shall be paid in cash, and the price to be paid shall be determined by agreement, or in the absence of agreement, shall be the fair market value determined by the arithmetic average of appraisals by two (2) MAI appraisers, one (1) selected by the seller and the other by the Association. The cost of the appraisals and all other closing costs in cases where no sales contract is involved, shall be shared equally by the purchaser and Seller, except that the purchaser shall pay for Purchaser's title insurance, and all costs of mortgage financing; real property taxes and Assessments and Charges shall be prorated for the year of closing and the parties shall bear their own attorneys' fees, if any. The closing shall take place no longer than sixty (60) days after the date of Board disapproval or thirty (30) days after determination of fair market value by appraisal, whichever occurs last. Failure to close by the Seller shall constitute a breach of contract and shall entitle the purchaser to specific performance or damages.

14.2.2.3.3 If the Board fails to deliver the name of the approved purchaser within thirty (30) days as required above, or if the approved purchaser defaults in his/her purchase, then the original proposed purchaser shall be deemed to be approved, despite the Board's former disapproval, and upon demand a Certificate of Approval shall be issued.

14.3 General Provisions.

14.3.1 Unapproved Transfers. Any Transfer which is not approved, or which is disapproved pursuant to the terms of this Declaration, shall be void unless subsequently approved in writing by the Board. The Association shall have the right to remove any Occupant(s) and personal belongings by injunctive relief or by other means provided in this Declaration should this Section 14 be violated.

14.3.2 Application Form. The Association is vested with the authority to prescribe an application form such as may require specific personal, social, financial, and other data relating to the intended purchasers or new Owners, and Occupants, as may reasonably be required by the Association in order to enable the Association to reasonably investigate the intended purchasers, new Owners and Occupants within the time limits extended to the Association for that purpose as set forth in this Section 14. The application shall be complete and submitted to the Association along with and as an integral part of the notice of intended Transfer.

14.3.3 Transfer Fee. The Board is empowered to charge a fee in connection with and as a condition for the approvals set forth in this Section 14 in the amount not to exceed the maximum allowed by applicable law from time to time.

14.3.4 Certain Exceptions. Section 14.2 shall not apply to a transfer to or purchase by an Institutional Mortgagee that acquires its title as the result of owning a mortgage upon the Unit concerned, and this shall be so whether the title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor, its successors or assigns, or through foreclosure proceedings; nor shall such Section 14.2 apply to a transfer or sale by an Institutional Mortgagee that so acquires its title. Nor shall this Section require the approval of a purchaser who acquires title to a Unit at a duly advertised public sale with open bidding provided by law, such as but not limited to execution sale, foreclosure sale, judicial sale or tax sale. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 14.3.4 shall not be construed to exempt the foregoing from compliance or permit the foregoing to be in noncompliance with the Condominium Act and all other provisions of the Condominium Documents; nor shall the grantee (other than another Institutional Mortgagee) of the foregoing be exempt from the requirements of Section 14.2 above.

14.3.5 Additional Exceptions. Section 14.2 above shall not apply to transfers of title to or from Developer or by the Owner thereof to his spouse, adult children, parents, parents-in-law, adult siblings or a trustee, corporation or other entity where the Owner or the aforementioned related persons are and continue to be the sole beneficiary or equity Owner of such trustee, corporation or other entity.

SECTION 15. INSURANCE. In order to adequately protect the Properties that are required to be insured by the Association, insurance shall be carried and kept in force at all times in accordance with the following provisions.

15.1 Duty and Authority to Obtain. The Board shall obtain and keep in force the insurance coverage which the Association is required to carry by law and under the Condominium Documents, and may obtain and keep in force any or all additional insurance coverage as the Board deems necessary. The insured's name shall be the Association and Owners without naming them, and their mortgagees, as their interests shall appear. To the extent permitted by law, and by the insurance guidelines as published from time to time by FNMA, the Association may self-insure.

15.2 Required Coverage. The Association shall maintain adequate insurance covering the minimum Properties which the Condominium Act requires, as the Act is amended from time to time, in an amount determined annually by the Board, such insurance to afford the following protection:

15.2.1 Property. Loss or damage by fire, extended coverage (including windstorm), vandalism and malicious mischief, and other hazards covered by the standard "All Risk" property contract.

15.2.2 Liability. Premises and operations liability for bodily injury and property damage in such limits of protection and with such coverage as required by the Board of the Association, with cross liability endorsement to cover liabilities of Owners as a group, to an Owner.

15.2.3 Automobile. Automobile liability for bodily injury and property damage for all hired and/or non-owned motor vehicles in such limits or protection and with such coverage as may be required by the Board.

15.2.4 Workers' Compensation. The Association shall maintain Workers' Compensation insurance on at least a minimum premium basis.

15.2.5 Statutory Fidelity Bond. A minimum of that required by the Condominium Act, per person having access to Association funds.

15.2.6 Directors and Officers Liability Insurance. To the extent available, the Association shall purchase insurance to protect the persons referred to in Article VII of the Articles of Incorporation.

15.3 Optional Coverage. The Association may purchase and carry other such insurance coverage as the Board may determine to be in the best interests of the Association and the Owners. Some of the more common options include:

15.3.1 Flood insurance.

15.3.2 Boiler and Machinery Coverage Endorsement (including breakdown on air conditioning equipment).

15.3.3 Scheduled equipment floater (protection for specialized mobile equipment).

15.3.4 Broad Form Comprehensive General Liability Endorsement.

15.3.5 Elevator liability and elevator collision.

15.3.6 Medical payments.

15.3.7 Leakage, seepage and wind-driven rain.

15.3.8 Plate glass insurance - perimeter Unit walls.

15.3.9 Employment Liability.

15.4 Description of Coverage. A detailed summary of the coverage included in the master policies, and copies of the master policies, shall be available for inspection by Owners or their authorized representatives upon written request.

15.5 Waiver of Subrogation. If available and where applicable, the Board shall endeavor to obtain insurance policies that provide that the insurer waives the insurer's right to subrogation as to any claim against the Developer, Association, Owners, or their respective servants, agents or guests, except for any claim based upon gross negligence evidencing reckless, willful and wanton disregard for life or property.

15.6 Insurance Proceeds. All insurance policies purchased solely by the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association, Owners, and their mortgagees as their interests may appear, and all proceeds shall be payable to the Association. The Association's duty shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and hold and disburse them in trust for the purposes stated in this Declaration and for the benefit of Owners and their respective mortgagees in the following shares:

15.6.1 Common Elements and/or Association Property. Proceeds on account of damage to Common Elements and/or Association Property shall be held in as many undivided shares as there are Units, the shares of each Owner being the same as each Owner's Undivided Share in the Common Elements.

15.6.2 Units. Proceeds on account of damage within Units shall be held in undivided shares based on the prorated amount of damage within each damaged Unit as a percentage of the total damage within all Units.

15.6.3 Mortgagee. If a mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to a Unit, the shares of the mortgagee and the Owner shall be as their interests appear. In no event shall any mortgagee have the right to demand application of insurance proceeds to any mortgage or mortgages which it may hold against Unit(s), except as otherwise provided in this Section 15 or Section 16 below. No mortgagee shall have any right to participate in determining whether improvements will be restored after casualty.

15.7 Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Association shall be distributed to or for the benefit of Owners in the following manner:

15.7.1 Cost of Reconstruction or Repair. If the damage for which the proceeds are paid is to be reconstructed or repaired by the Association, the proceeds shall be paid to defray the costs. Any proceeds remaining after defraying the costs shall be distributed to the beneficial Owners, with remittances to Owners and their mortgagees being paid jointly. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a Unit and may be enforced by the mortgagee. This remittance shall be made solely to an Institutional First Mortgagee when requested by such Institutional First Mortgagee whose mortgage provides that it has the right to require application of the insurance proceeds to the payment or reduction of its mortgage debt.

15.7.2 Failure to Reconstruct or Repair. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided in this Declaration that the damages for which the proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the remaining proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial Owners, remittances to Owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a Unit and may be enforced by the mortgagee. This remittance shall be made solely to an Institutional First Mortgagee when requested by such Institutional First Mortgagee whose mortgage provides that it has the right to require application of the insurance proceeds to the payment of its mortgage debt.

15.8 Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed as agent for each Owner to adjust all claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association for damage or loss to the Properties and to execute and deliver releases upon the payment of such claims.

15.9 Owners. Owners may, but shall not be required, to procure the title insurance, and insurance upon their personal property and for their personal liability and living expense and for any other risks not otherwise insured by the Association in accordance with this Section 15. Owners may at their option purchase insurance for Properties that are also insured by the Association under this Section 15. Insurance purchased by Owners under this Section 15.9 shall be so purchased at their own expense. Unless the Association elects otherwise, the insurance purchased by the Association shall not cover claims against an Owner due to accidents occurring within his Unit, nor casualty or theft loss to the contents of an Owner's Unit. It shall be the obligation of the individual Owner, if such Owner so desires, to purchase and pay for insurance as to all such and other risks not covered by insurance carried by the Association.

SECTION 16. RECONSTRUCTION OR REPAIR AFTER CASUALTY. If any part of the Properties is damaged by casualty, whether and how same shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be determined as follows:

16.1 Damage to Units. Where loss or damage occurs within one (1) or more Units, any Association insurance proceeds on account of the loss or damage, less the deductible, shall be distributed to the Owner(s) of the damaged Unit(s) in shares as provided for in Section 15.6 above, and to the Owner(s)' mortgagees, being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a Unit and may be enforced by the mortgagee. This remittance shall be made solely to an Institutional First Mortgagee when requested by such Institutional First Mortgagee whose mortgage provides that it has the right to require application of the insurance proceeds to the payment or reduction of its mortgage debt. The Owner(s) of the damaged Unit(s) shall thereupon be responsible for reconstruction and repair.

16.2 Damage to Common Elements and Association Property - Less than "Very Substantial". Where loss or damage occurs to the Common Elements, Limited Common Elements and/or Association Property, but the loss is less than "very substantial", as defined in Section 16.3 below, it shall be mandatory for the Association to repair, restore and rebuild the damage caused by the loss, and the following procedures shall apply:

16.2.1 The Board shall promptly obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost of repair and restoration, and shall negotiate and contract for repair and reconstruction.

16.2.2 If the proceeds of insurance and available reserves are insufficient to pay for the cost of repair and of the Common Elements and/or Association Property, the Association shall promptly, upon determination of the deficiency, either utilize existing available funds of the Association; or if necessary or desirable, levy a Special Assessment against all Owners for the deficiency. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Declaration to the contrary, such Special Assessment need not be approved by Owners. The Special Assessment shall be added to the funds available for repair and restoration of the Properties.

16.3 "Very Substantial" Damage. As used in this Declaration, the term "very substantial" damage shall mean that two-thirds (2/3) or more of the Units in the Building are or have been rendered untenable by casualty loss or damage.

16.4 Determination Whether to Reconstruct. Should Very Substantial Damage occur as defined in Section 16.3 above:

16.4.1 The Board shall promptly obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost of repair and restoration.

16.4.2 A membership meeting shall be called by the Board to be held not later than ninety (90) days after the Board has obtained the estimates referred to in Section 16.4.1 above and has been able to locate not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the membership of the Association to determine the opinion of such membership with reference to rebuilding or termination of the Condominium, subject to the following:

16.4.2.1 If the insurance proceeds and reserves available for restoration and repair are sufficient to cover the cost so that no Special Assessment will be required, then the Condominium shall be restored or repaired unless two-thirds (2/3) of the voting interests of the membership shall vote for termination, or unless the then applicable zoning or other regulatory laws will not allow reconstruction of the same number and general type of Units, in either of which cases the Condominium shall be terminated.

16.4.2.2 (i) If the insurance proceeds and reserves available for restoration and repair are not sufficient to cover the costs thereof so that a Special Assessment will be required, then unless two-thirds (2/3) of the voting interests of the membership of the Association vote in favor of such Special Assessment and against termination of the Condominium, the Condominium shall be terminated. (ii) If two-thirds (2/3) of the voting interests of the Association approve the Special Assessment, the Association, through its Board, shall levy such Special Assessment and shall proceed to negotiate and contract for necessary repairs and restoration. The Special Assessment shall be added to the funds available for repair and restoration of the property as to the Units with Very Substantial Damage.

16.4.2.3 If any dispute shall arise as to whether Very Substantial Damage has occurred, a determination by the Board shall be binding upon all Owners.

16.5 Application of Insurance Proceeds. It shall be presumed that the first monies disbursed for repair and restoration are from the insurance proceeds. If there is a balance in the funds held by the Association after the payment of all costs of repair and restoration, such balance shall be distributed to Owners, except as otherwise provided in Sections 15 or 16 of this Declaration.

16.6 Equitable Relief. In the event of damage to the Common Elements which renders any Unit untenable, and the damage is not repaired, reconstructed, or rebuilt within a reasonable period of time, the Owner of the untenable Unit may petition a Court for equitable relief, which may include a termination of the Condominium or a partition. For the purposes of this provision, it shall be presumed that repair, reconstruction or rebuilding has occurred within a reasonable period of time if substantial work is commenced within four (4) months following the damage or destruction and is completed within nine (9) months thereafter.

16.7 Plans and Specifications. Any reconstruction or repairs must be made substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications for the original Building and Improvements; or otherwise according to different plans and specifications approved by the Board, by the vote of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the voting interests of the membership, and by the Primary Institutional Mortgagee, if any.

16.8 Termination. In the event of termination of the entire Condominium, the provisions of Section 18 below shall apply.

SECTION 17. CONDEMNATION OR EMINENT DOMAIN.

17.1 Deposit of Awards with Association. The taking of all or any part of the Properties by condemnation or eminent domain shall be deemed to be a casualty to the portion taken and the awards for that taking shall be deemed to be proceeds from insurance on account of the casualty. Even though the awards may be payable to Owners, Owners shall deposit the awards with the Association; and if any fail to do so, a Charge shall be made against a defaulting Owner in the amount of his award, or the amount of that award shall be set off against any sums payable to that Owner; the Charge shall be collected as provided for in this Declaration.

17.2 Determination Whether to Continue Condominium. Whether the Condominium will be continued after condemnation will be determined in the same manner provided for determining whether damaged property will be reconstructed and repaired after a casualty.

17.3 Disbursement of Funds. If the Condominium is terminated after condemnation, the proceeds of all awards and Special Assessments will be deemed to be Condominium Property and shall be owned and distributed in the manner provided for insurance proceeds when the Condominium is terminated after a casualty. If the Condominium is not terminated after condemnation, the size of the Condominium will be reduced, Owners of condemned Units, if any, will be made whole, and any property damaged by the taking will be made usable in the manner provided below. Proceeds of awards and Special Assessments shall be used for these purposes and shall be disbursed in the manner provided for disbursements of funds after a casualty.

17.4 Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed as each Owner's attorney-in-fact for purposes of negotiating or litigating with the condemning authority for the purpose of realizing just compensation.

17.5 Units Reduced but Habitable. If the condemnation reduces the size of a Unit and the remaining portion of the Unit can be made habitable, the awards for the taking of a portion of that Unit shall be used for the following purposes in the order stated, and the following changes shall be effected in the Condominium:

17.5.1 Restoration of Unit. The Unit shall be made habitable. If the cost of the restoration exceeds the amount of the award, the additional funds required shall be paid by the Unit's Owner.

17.5.2 Distribution of Surplus. The balance of the award, if any, shall be distributed to the Unit's Owner and to each mortgagee of the Unit, the remittance being made payable jointly to the Owner and mortgagees.

17.5.3 Adjustment of Shares in Common Elements. If a Unit's floor area is reduced by the taking, the number representing the share in the Common Elements appurtenant to the Unit shall be reduced in the proportion by which the Unit's floor area is reduced by the taking, and then the shares of all Owners in the Common Elements shall be restated as percentages of the total of the numbers representing their original shares as reduced by the taking.

17.6 Unit Made Uninhabitable. If the condemnation is of an entire Unit or reduces the size of a Unit so that it cannot be made habitable, the award for the taking of the Unit shall be used for the following purposes in the order stated, and the following changes shall be effected in the Condominium:

17.6.1 Payment of Award. The Unit's fair market value immediately prior to the taking shall be paid to the Unit's Owner and to each mortgagee of the Unit, the remittance being made payable jointly to the Owner and mortgagee(s).

17.6.2 Addition to Common Elements. If possible and practical, the Unit's remaining portion shall become a part of the Common Elements and shall be placed in condition for use by some or all Owners in a manner approved by the Board.

17.6.3 Adjustment of Shares in Common Elements. The shares in the Common Elements appurtenant to the Units that continue as part of the Condominium shall be adjusted to distribute the ownership of the Common Elements among the reduced number of Owners. This shall be done by restating the shares of continuing Owners in the Common Elements as percentages of the total of the numbers representing the shares as they existed prior to the adjustment.

17.6.4 Assessments. If the amount of the award for the taking is not sufficient to pay the fair market value of the condemned Unit to the Owner and to condition the remaining portion of the Unit for use as a part of the Common Elements, the additional funds required for those purposes shall be raised by Special Assessment against all Owners who will continue as Owners of Units after the changes in the Condominium affected by the taking. The Special Assessments shall be made in proportion to the shares of those Owners in the Common Elements after the changes affected by the taking.

17.6.5 Arbitration. If a Unit's fair market value prior to the taking cannot be determined by agreement between the Owner and the Association within thirty (30) days after notice by either party, the value shall be determined by appraisal in accordance with the following. The Owner, the first mortgagee, if any, and the Association shall each appoint one (1) qualified appraiser, who shall appraise the Unit and determine the fair market value by computing the arithmetic average of their appraisals of the Unit. A judgment of specific performance upon the fair market value calculated in this way may be entered in any Court of competent jurisdiction. Each party shall bear the cost of its own appraiser.

17.7 Taking of Common Elements and Association Property. Awards for the taking of Common Elements and Association Property shall be used to make the remaining portion of the Common Elements usable in a manner approved by the Board. The balance of such awards, if any, shall be distributed to Owners in the shares in which they own the Common Elements after adjustment of these shares on account of the condemnation, if any. If a Unit is mortgaged, the remittance shall be paid jointly to the Owner and the mortgagee(s) of the Unit.

17.8 Amendment of Declaration. Any changes in Units and in the Common Elements, in the ownership of the Common Elements, and in the sharing of Common Expenses that are necessitated by condemnation shall be accomplished by amending this Declaration. Such amendment need be approved only by a majority of all Directors. The consent of Owners or lienholders is not required for any such amendment.

17.9 Priority-Conflict. In the event of any conflict between Section 16 and this Section 17, the provisions of this Section 17 shall control and govern.

SECTION 18. TERMINATION. The Condominium may be terminated in the following manner in addition to the manner provided in Condominium Act:

18.1 Agreement. The Condominium may be terminated at any time by the approval in writing of all of Owners of Units in the Condominium and by all record mortgagees.

18.2 Very Substantial Damage. If the Building, as a result of casualty, suffers Very Substantial Damage as defined in Section 16 of this Declaration, or Section 17.2 applies and it is not decided as provided in those Sections that the Building will be reconstructed or repaired, the Condominium form of ownership of the property in this Condominium will terminate without agreement.

18.3 General Provisions. Upon termination, the former Owners shall become Owners, as tenants in common, of all Condominium and Association Property and the assets of the Association. The shares of such tenants in common shall be the same as were their Undivided Shares of the Common Elements. The mortgagee or lienor of an Owner, shall have a mortgage or lien solely and exclusively upon the Undivided Share of such tenant in common in and to the lands and other properties and rights which such tenant in common may receive by reason of such termination. The termination of the Condominium shall be evidenced by a certificate of the Association executed by its President and Secretary certifying as to facts effecting the termination. Termination shall become effective when that certificate is recorded in the Public Records of the County.

18.4 New Condominium. The Condominium's termination does not bar creation of another Condominium affecting all or any portion of the same property.

18.5 Sale; Partition.

18.5.1 Very Substantial Damage. Except as may be provided otherwise in Section 18.5.2 below, following termination, the former Condominium Property and the Association Property may be partitioned and sold upon the application of any Owner. If following a termination, at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting interests of Owners determine to accept an offer for the sale of the property, all Owners shall be bound to execute deeds and other documents reasonably required to effect the sale. In such event, any action for partition of the property shall be held in abeyance pending the sale, and upon the consummation of the sale, shall be discontinued by all parties.

18.5.2 By Agreement (Other Than For Very Substantial Damage). If the proposed termination is submitted to a meeting of the membership of the Association, pursuant to notice, and is approved in writing within sixty (60) days of said meeting by seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting interests of all members of the Association, and by all Institutional Mortgagees, then the Association and the approving Owners, if they desire, shall have an option to purchase all of the Units of the other Owners within a period expiring one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of such meeting. Such approvals shall be irrevocable until the expiration of the option and if the option is exercised, the approvals shall be irrevocable. During this option period, and up through the date of closing on the option, no actions for partition shall lie. The option shall be exercised upon the following terms:

18.5.2.1 Exercise of Option. An agreement to purchase executed by the Association and/or the record Owners of the Units who will participate in the purchase, shall be delivered by personal delivery or mailed by certified or registered mail, to each of the record Owners of the Units to be purchased, and such delivery shall be deemed the exercise of the option. The agreement shall indicate which Units will be purchased by each participating Owner and/or the Association, and shall require the purchase of all Units owned by Owners not approving the termination, but the agreement shall effect a separate contract between the seller and his purchaser.

18.5.2.2 Price. The sale price for each Unit shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser within thirty (30) days from the delivery or mailing of such Agreement and, in the absence of agreement as to price, it shall be determined by appraisers appointed by a Judge of the Circuit Court in and for the County, on the petition of the seller. The purchaser shall pay the expense of appraisal.

18.5.2.3 Payment. The purchase price shall be paid in cash.

18.5.2.4 Closing. The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days following the determination of the sale price.

18.6 Last Board. The members of the last Board shall continue to have the powers granted in the Condominium Documents for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Association, notwithstanding the fact that the Association itself may be dissolved upon termination of the Condominium.

18.7 Provisions Survive Termination. The provisions of this Section 18 shall be deemed covenants running with the land, and shall survive the termination of the Condominium until all matters covered by those provisions have been completed.

SECTION 19. COMPLIANCE AND DEFAULT; REMEDIES.

19.1 Duty to Comply; Right to Sue.

19.1.1 Each Owner, Guest, Occupant, tenant and other invitee, and the Association, shall be governed by and shall comply with the provisions of the Condominium and Corporate Acts and the Condominium Documents. Actions for damages, for injunctive relief, and/or for declaratory relief, for failure to comply may be brought by the Association, by an Owner or by a Guest, Occupant, tenant or other invitee occupying a Unit against:

19.1.1.1 The Association;

19.1.1.2 Any Owner;

19.1.1.3 Any member of the Board who willfully and knowingly fails to comply with these provisions.

19.1.1.4 Any tenant leasing a Unit, and any other Guest, Occupant or invitee occupying a Unit.

19.1.2 Any Owner prevailing in an action between the Association and the Owner and if entitled to recover attorneys' fees, may recover additional amounts determined by a court to be necessary to reimburse him for his share of Assessments levied by the Association to fund its expenses of the litigation.

19.1.3 The Association shall also have any other remedies provided for in the Condominium Documents and law.

19.1.4 The mandatory procedures regarding the non-binding arbitration of disputes set forth in Florida Statutes, 718.1255, as amended from time to time, and the applicable Administrative Rules, shall be followed and shall apply so long as they exist and apply.

19.1.5 Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Association shall be required to obtain the approval of Owners of three-fourths (3/4) of all Units (at a duly called meeting called by the Members on behalf of the Association at which a quorum is present) prior to the payment of, retaining or contracting for legal or other fees to persons or entities engaged by the Association for the purpose of suing, or making, preparing or investigating any lawsuit, or commencing any lawsuit other than for the following purposes:

19.1.5.1 the collection of Assessments;

19.1.5.2 The collection of other charges which Owners are obligated to pay pursuant to the Condominium Documents;

19.1.5.3 The enforcement of the use and occupancy restrictions contained in the Condominium Documents;

19.1.5.4 The enforcement of the restrictions on the sale and other transfer of Units contained in the Condominium Documents;

19.1.5.5 In an emergency where waiting to obtain the approval of Owners creates a substantial risk of irreparable injury to the Condominium Property or to Owner(s) (the imminent expiration of a statute of limitations shall not be deemed an emergency obviating the need for the requisite vote of three-fourths (3/4) of Owners); or

19.1.5.6 Filing a compulsory counterclaim.

Notwithstanding other provisions in this Declaration, Section 19.1 shall not be amended except by the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board and seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting interests of the Members.

19.2 Association Notice to Correct. If any Owner shall fail to properly discharge the maintenance, repair and replacement obligations as provided for in Sections 11.2, 11.3, and 11.4 above, or shall fail to make and pay for maintenance, repair or replacement as provided for in Sections 11.2, 11.3 and 11.4 above and in the judgment of the Board, the same shall result in a condition of unsightliness tending to adversely affect the value or enjoyment of neighboring Owners and residents, or should any Owner violate Sections 11.2, 11.3 or 11.4 above, or should the neglect or the willful misconduct of Owner(s) cause damage which then requires maintenance, repair or replacement by the Association, then the following shall apply:

19.2.1 The Board may (but shall not be required to) provide notice of such condition(s) to the proper Owner(s), demanding that the condition(s) be corrected within thirty (30) days from the date the notice was sent. If the Owner does not rectify the condition at the end of this period, then the Association may seek a court order authorizing it to contract to have the necessary work performed (and entry onto the Unit), whereupon the cost of this work shall become a Charge against the Owner and Unit concerned (solely or proportionately as the Board shall determine) and collectible as Charges are collected under this Declaration.

19.2.2 Provisos. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Section 19.2: (i) the thirty (30)-day notice period may be shortened or eliminated if the Board determines that an emergency exists to effect correction, and (ii) the thirty (30)-day notice shall not apply to Section 19.3 below.

19.3 Negligence; Damage Caused by Condition on Unit. Each Owner shall be liable to the Association for the expenses of any maintenance, repair or replacement of Common Elements, Limited Common Elements and Association Property made necessary by his act or negligence, or by that of any member of his family or his guests, employees, agents, or lessees. If any condition, defect or malfunction existing on a Unit, whether caused by the Owner's negligence or otherwise, shall cause damage to the Properties, the Owner of the offending Unit shall be liable to the person or entity responsible for repairing the damaged areas, for all costs of repair or replacement not paid by insurance. If the Association effects correction, the cost shall be levied as a Charge against the Owner and Unit and collectible as Charges are collected under this Declaration, and the Association may, but is not required to, provide notice to the Owner prior to effecting correction.

19.4 Association's Access onto the Properties; Key.

19.4.1 The Association, by and through the Board, officers, or the agents or employees of the Association, has an irrevocable right of access to each Unit during reasonable hours, when necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of those Properties for which the Association is obligated to maintain, repair and replace under this Declaration.

19.4.2 Each Owner shall deposit a key to the Unit with the Association. Should the Owner change any lock or install or add a new one, the Owner shall deposit the new additional key(s) with the Association. The Association's use of the key to gain access to a Unit shall be limited to the need to perform maintenance, repairs, replacement, alterations and protection of the Condominium and Association Property. Should the Owner fail to provide a key, and should the Association be required to gain access to a Unit, the Owner shall be liable for any damage caused by the Association to the Unit and Common Elements resulting from the Association's forced entry into the Unit for the purposes stated in this Section 19.4.

19.5 Owners' Responsibility. Owners are strictly responsible to ensure that their family members, Guests, agents, tenants, servants, etc. or any Occupants of their Units comply with the Condominium Documents, and all applicable statutes and laws. As such, Owners are responsible and liable to the Association for violations of the Condominium Documents by their family members, Guests, agents, tenants, servants, etc. or any Occupants of their Units.

19.6 Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association or of a Member to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by the Condominium Documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association or Member to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future.

19.7 Costs and Attorneys' and Paralegal Fees. Except and to the extent otherwise provided in Florida Statutes Section 718.1255, as amended from time to time, and the applicable Administrative Rules, in any legal proceeding arising out of an alleged failure of an Owner (for himself/herself or for his/her family members, Guests, agents, tenants, servants, etc. or any Occupants of the Unit), or the Association to comply with the Condominium Documents, or law, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover costs of the proceedings and attorneys' fees and paralegals' charges (including appellate attorneys' fees and paralegals' charges).

19.8 No Election of Remedies. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or Owners under any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of the Condominium Documents or law, shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of any one (1) or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party from exercising such other additional rights, remedies, or privileges as may be granted by the Condominium Documents or at law or in equity.

19.9 Eviction of Tenants and Occupants. Except and to the extent otherwise provided in or barred by Florida Statutes Section 718.1255, as amended from time to time, and the applicable Administrative Rules, the Association possesses all rights and remedies of the lessor/Owner under Chapter 83, Florida Statutes, for the purposes of enforcing against violations of the Condominium Documents. If tenants and/or Occupants shall be in non-compliance with any of the Condominium Documents, the following may occur. Such non-compliance shall be a breach of the Condominium Documents and therefore a breach of the lease. The Association on behalf of the lessor/Owner may terminate the lease, and re-enter and re-take possession of the Unit for and on behalf of the lessor/Owner, after providing the notices required by Chapter 83, Florida Statutes. The Association has the right to serve such notices, terminate the lease and seek possession of the Unit for and on behalf of the lessor/Owner, upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after the Association mails notice of such intent to the lessor/Owner, without further notification nor the need to obtain specific permission from the lessor/Owner. The Association then has the right to institute eviction proceedings in Court against the lessees as agent for and on behalf of the lessor/Owner, based on the non-compliances mentioned above. The Association may exercise the Association's rights and remedies under this Section 19.9 without any liability to the lessor/Owner or lessees/occupancy (including, but not limited to, the loss of rent to the lessor/Owner and loss of possession by the lessees/Permanent Occupants), except as may be provided for in Chapter 83, Florida Statutes. The tenants shall be jointly and severally responsible for the costs, paralegal charges and attorneys' fees incurred by the Association in connection with this matter.

SECTION 20. RIGHTS OF MORTGAGEES. The following rights shall apply to certain or all mortgagees, in addition to those rights contained elsewhere in the Condominium Documents:

20.1 Amendments to the Declaration. Written consent of certain mortgagees of a Unit shall be required for certain amendments to this Declaration. (Refer to Section 22.5.4 below for the same.)

20.2 Association Lien Foreclosure. Certain named mortgagees have certain rights in connection with Association lien foreclosure actions, as provided for in Section 10.8.1 above.

20.3 Redemption. If proceedings are instituted to foreclose any mortgage or lien on any Unit, the Association, on behalf of one (1) or more Owners and with the permission of the mortgagee, may redeem the mortgage or lien for the amount due thereon and be thereby subrogated to all of the mortgagee's or lienor's rights of action, or the Association may purchase the Unit at the foreclosure sale. Any mortgagee shall have the right to accept title to the Unit in settlement and satisfaction of the mortgage or to foreclose its mortgage in accordance with its terms, and to bid upon the Unit at the foreclosure sale. If the Association or any of its members redeem the mortgage or cure the default, it or they shall have a lien against the Unit for all sums expended in connection therewith and shall have the same rights to collect such sums as in the case of a past due Assessment.

20.4 Right to Inspect Books. The Association shall make available to Institutional Mortgagees requesting the same current copies of the Condominium Documents and the Association's official records, which, by the Condominium Act, may be inspected by Owners. "Available" shall mean ready for inspection, upon written request, during normal business hours or under other reasonable circumstances. Photocopies shall be provided at the expense of the person requesting the same.

20.5 Financial Statements. Any Institutional Mortgagee is entitled, upon written request, to a copy of the financial statements of the Association for the immediately preceding fiscal year.

20.6 Lender's Notices. Upon written request to the Association, any Institutional Mortgagee shall be entitled to timely written notice of:

20.6.1 Any sixty (60) day or longer delinquency in the payment of Assessments or charges owed by the Owner of any Unit on which the mortgagee holds a mortgage; and any thirty (30) day or longer default of any other provision in the Condominium Documents by an Owner of any Unit on which the mortgagee holds a mortgage.

20.6.2 A lapse, cancellation, or material modification of any insurance policy or fidelity bond maintained by the Association.

20.6.3 Any condemnation or casualty loss that affects a material portion of the Condominium or any Unit.

20.6.4 Any proposed action that requires the consent of a specified percentage of mortgage holders.

20.6.5 Outstanding Assessments unpaid with respect to the Unit on which the Institutional Mortgagee holds a mortgage.

20.6.6 Notice of Association meetings.

20.7 Access. All Institutional Mortgagees shall specifically have a complete right of access to all of the Common Elements and Association Property, for the purpose of ingress and egress to any Unit upon which they have a mortgage loan. Any Institutional Mortgagee shall be entitled to attend meetings of the Association.

20.8 Presumption. Where an institutional first mortgage, by some circumstance fails to be a first mortgage but it is evident that such mortgage is intended to be a first mortgage, such mortgage nevertheless, for the purpose of the Condominium Documents, shall be deemed to be an institutional first mortgage.

SECTION 21. DEVELOPER'S UNITS AND PRIVILEGES; DEVELOPER DESIGNEES. The following provisions shall apply in addition to any and all provisions contained elsewhere in this Declaration with respect to Developer's Units and privileges. The provisions of this Section 21 shall take precedence over any other provisions to the contrary in the Condominium Documents.

21.1 Changes in General Plan of Development. Until the sale of all Units, in addition to Developer's rights in accordance with Sections 4.3, 4.4 and 4.6, Developer reserves the right to make such physical modifications to the Condominium as may be required by any lender, governmental authority, or as may be, in Developer's judgment, necessary or desirable. Provided, however, that the forgoing is subject to the rights of any Owner or other person under the Condominium Act, and shall require the approval of Owners as required by Florida Statutes

Section 718.110(2), and if so required, the provisions of Section 22.5.2 below shall control and govern.

21.2 Sales/Lease Activities. No Owner, person, or the Association, or their respective use of the Units, shall interfere with Developer's construction, completion, and sale or leasing of the Units (except that the Association shall have the right to approve leases and lessees of Units to be leased by Developer), whether in this Condominium or otherwise. Until all of the Units have been sold by Developer or are no longer being offered for sale in the ordinary course of business by Developer, Developer shall be irrevocably empowered: (i) to sell Units to any person or entity approved by Developer without any interference or objection from the Association, and without any limitation; and (ii) to prohibit any changes to any provision of the Condominium Documents, which addresses an Owner's use of a Unit which, in Developer's sole discretion, negatively impacts on Developer's ability to sell Units owned by Developer. Furthermore, Developer reserves the right to retain title to any Units and lease all or portions of same, without any intention of selling them so long as Developer obtains the approval of the Association for any such lease. Developer shall have the right to transact upon the Properties any business necessary to consummate the sale/lease of Units, including, but not limited to, the right to construct, install, maintain, and use temporary construction, office, storage and sales facilities, place signs, banners and flags on the Properties for construction or sales purposes, use the Common Elements and Association Property for sales offices or for sales and promotional purposes, and conduct sales activities relating to property owned by Developer or any of Developer's affiliates or designees which are situated outside of the Condominium. Any sales offices, signs, fixtures, furnishings, or other tangible personal property belonging to Developer shall not be considered as part of the Properties nor owned by the Association and shall remain the property of Developer. Developer shall further be exempt from the parking restrictions of Section 12.4 only to the extent that the vehicles in question are engaged in any activity relating to the construction, maintenance or marketing for sale or for lease of Units, or of property owned by Developer or any of Developer's affiliates or designees which are situated outside of the Condominium.

21.3 Specific Exemptions Under the Declaration. In addition to any other exemptions provided in favor of Developer in this Declaration, Developer and its designees shall be exempt from all use restrictions contained in this Declaration, except for those use restrictions that are precluded by law.

SECTION 22. AMENDMENT OF DECLARATION.

22.1 Proposal. Amendments to this Declaration may be proposed by the Board or by written petition signed by Owners of one-fourth (1/4) of the Units.

22.2 Procedure; Notice and Format. Upon any amendment or amendments to this Declaration being proposed as provided above, the proposed amendment or amendments shall be submitted to a vote of the Members not later than the next annual meeting for which sufficient time exists to give proper notice before that meeting. The full text of any amendment to the Declaration shall be included in the notice of Owners' meeting at which a proposed amendment is to be considered by Owners. New words shall be inserted in the text by underlining and words to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens; provided, however, that if the proposed change is so extensive that this procedure would hinder, rather than assist, the understanding of the proposed amendment, it is not necessary to use underlining and hyphens as indicators of words added or deleted, but, instead, a notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment in substantially the following language: "Substantial rewording of Declaration. See provision _____ for present text."

22.3 Vote Required. Except as otherwise provided by Florida law, or by specific provision of the Condominium Documents, this Declaration may be amended as follows:

22.3.1 Up through a date which is the earlier of: (i) the date on which Developer no longer owns any Units in the Condominium; or (ii) seven (7) years from the date of the recording of this Declaration, by the vote of a majority of the entire Board and (a) if Developer opposes the amendment, seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting interests of the Members; or (b) if Developer does not oppose the amendment, a majority of the voting interests of the Members.

22.3.2 After the date referred to in Section 22.3.1 above, by a vote of a majority of the entire Board and a majority of the voting interests of all Members.

22.3.3 If the amendments were proposed by written petition signed by Owners pursuant to Section 22.1 above, then the concurrence of the Board shall not be required.

22.4 Certificate; Recording. A copy of each adopted amendment shall be attached to a certificate that the amendment was duly adopted as an amendment to the Declaration, which certificate shall be in the form required by law and shall be executed by any officer of the Association with the formalities of a deed. The Certificate of Amendment shall on the first page state the book and page of the public records where the Declaration is recorded. If the written consent procedure is used, the Owners' consents need not be recorded, so long as the Certification of Amendment executed by the officer of the Association attests to the execution of a sufficient number of consents to pass the amendment in question. The amendment shall be effective when the certificate and copy of the amendment are recorded in the Public Records of the County.

22.5 Provisos. Notwithstanding any provision contained in the Condominium Documents to the contrary:

22.5.1 No amendment shall operate to unlawfully discriminate against any Unit or class or group of Units.

22.5.2 No amendment shall be made which falls under Florida Statutes Section 718.110(4), unless the Members vote and the approvals required therein are obtained. However, any such amendment related to a matter that falls under Sections 11.4.3.2 and 21.1 above and 22.6 below may be approved without the approval of the Board so long as a majority of the voting interests of all Members do approve.

22.5.3 Developer shall be permitted to unilaterally amend this Declaration without the approval of any Owner and the Association, as permitted by Florida Statutes Section 718.110(2). Furthermore, so long as Developer owns any Unit in the Condominium, no amendment to this Declaration that impairs or removes any reservation, right, or privilege of Developer or Developer's designees shall be effective unless Developer or Developer's designees, as applicable, shall join and consent to the amendment.

22.5.4 Except as to Section 22.6 as to which no mortgagee consent is necessary, except as provided therein, any amendment which materially affects the rights or interests of mortgages or for which the Federal National Mortgage Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation require mortgagee consent in the manner so provided in Florida Statutes Section 718.110(11), as the same shall be amended from time to time, shall not take effect without obtaining the written consent of the mortgagee, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld (joinder being unnecessary). In such case, the Certificate of the Association mentioned in Section 22.4 above shall reference the obtaining of the necessary consents.

22.6 Modifying Appurtenances; Changing Undivided Share; Merger. For so long as Developer owns Units for sale, the declaration, bylaws and common elements of two (2) or more independent condominiums in the Sea Colony at Vero Beach Community may be merged to form a single condominium upon the approval of Developer and a majority of voting interest of Members and all record owners of liens; and upon the recording of new or amended articles of incorporation, declaration and bylaws. For so long as Developer owns Units for sale, only the approval of Developer and a majority of voting interests of Members is required to: (i) change the number, configuration, or size of any Unit not yet conveyed to an Owner, the Common Elements or Association Property; (ii) materially alter or modify appurtenances to the Units; or (iii) change the Undivided Share, by an amendment to the Declaration. Such an amendment shall not require the consent of an Institutional Mortgagee or Owner unless: (a) Developer changes the proportion by which an Owner, other than Developer, shares the Common Expenses and the Common Surplus or owns the Common Elements, in which event, such Owner whose share of the Common Expenses and Common Surplus and ownership in the Common Elements are being so changed and the Institutional Mortgagees of record holding mortgages on the affected Units consent in writing thereto; or (b) such change materially and adversely affects an Owner as determined by Developer, in Developer's reasonable discretion, in which event such Owner and the Institutional Mortgagee of record holding the mortgage on the affected Unit consent in writing thereto.

SECTION 23. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

23.1 Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability in whole or in part of any covenant or restriction, or any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word, or other provision of this Declaration, the Exhibits attached hereto, or applicable rules and regulations adopted pursuant to such documents, as the same may be amended from time to time, shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions hereof or thereof, all of which shall remain in full force and effect.

23.2 Priorities in Case of Conflict. In the event of conflict between or among the provisions of any of the following, the order of priorities shall be from highest priority to lowest:

23.2.1 The Condominium Act that applies.

23.2.2 The Corporate Acts that apply.

23.2.3 Other Florida Statutes that apply.

23.2.4 This Declaration.

23.2.5 The Articles of Incorporation.

23.2.6 The Bylaws.

23.2.7 The Rules and Regulations and architectural guidelines promulgated by the Board.

23.3 Interpretation; Construction. The Board is responsible for interpreting the provisions of this Declaration and its Exhibits. Such interpretation shall be binding upon all parties unless wholly unreasonable. A written opinion rendered by legal counsel that an interpretation adopted by the Board is not unreasonable shall conclusively establish the validity of such interpretation. The provisions of this Declaration shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purpose of creating a uniform plan of condominium ownership.

23.4 Invalidity. If any Court shall hereafter determine that any provisions of this Declaration as originally drafted, or amended, violate the rule against perpetuities or any other rules of law because of the duration of the period involved, the period specified in the Declaration shall not thereby become invalid, but instead shall be reduced to the maximum period allowed such rules of law, and for such purpose measuring lives shall be that of the (original) incorporator(s) of the Association.

23.5 Captions. The captions in the Condominium Documents are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for ease of reference and in no way define or limit any provision in the Condominium Documents.

23.6 Gender; Plurality. Wherever the context so permits, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and the use of any gender shall be deemed to include all or no genders.

23.7 Owners' Affirmative Duties. All Owners are charged with the affirmative duty to keep the Association advised, in writing, of any mailing addresses as they change from time to time. All Owners must also advise the Association of any second addresses. The Association shall be permitted to rely on the information supplied by Owners in writing. Each Owner also consents to the Association distributing to each Owner a directory of Owners and their addresses.

23.8 Covenant Running with the Land. All provisions of the Condominium Documents shall, to the extent applicable be perpetual and be construed to be covenants running with the Properties in the Condominium, and all of the provisions of the Condominium Documents shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Developer, Owners, Association and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, and shall be binding on all residents, Occupants, Guests and invitees to the Properties. None of the provisions contained in the Condominium Documents are intended to create, nor shall be construed as creating, any rights in and for the benefit of the general public.

23.9 Exhibits. There is hereby incorporated in this Declaration any materials contained in the Exhibits attached hereto which under the Act are required to be part of the Declaration.

23.10 Signature of President and Secretary. Wherever the signature of the President of the Association is required hereunder, the signature of a Vice-President may be substituted therefor, and wherever the signature of the Secretary of the Association is required hereunder, the signature of an Assistant Secretary may be substituted therefor, provided that the same person may not execute any single instrument on behalf of the Association in two (2) separate capacities.

23.11 Ratification. Each Owner, by reason of having acquired ownership (whether by purchase, gift, operation of law or otherwise), and each occupant of a Unit, by reason of his occupancy, shall be deemed to have acknowledged and agreed that all of the provisions of the Condominium Documents are fair and reasonable in all material respects.

23.12 Developer, as Sole Beneficiary of Condominium Documents. Notwithstanding any provision or language in the Condominium Documents to the contrary, the legal counsel of Developer prepared the Condominium Documents solely for the benefit of their client, the Developer, and not for the benefit of any third parties. The terms, covenants and conditions established by the Condominium Documents, while continuing to be valid after turn over of control of the Association to the Owners, were intended for the sole benefit of Developer. Therefore, no third party, including Owners of Units, may claim that such party was an intended, third-party beneficiary of the services of such legal counsel.
