ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
TO AMENDED DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM
OF
KENTUCKY CLUB CONDOMINIUM

WHEREAS, KENTUCKY CLUB CONDOMINIUM (hereinafter, the "Condominium"), the Amended Declaration of Condominium of which is filed in Official Record Book 607, at Page 2370, of the Public Records of Indian River County, Florida, (hereinafter, the "Amended Declaration"), is the result of a merger of two neighboring, pre-existing, and separate condominiums, to wit: Kentucky Club, a Condominium, the original declaration of condominium of which is filed in Official Record Book 562, at Page 1505, of the Public Records of Indian River County, Florida (such original condominium being hereinafter referred to as "Building B"), and Lexington House, a Condominium, the original declaration of condominium of which is filed in Official Record Book 607, at Page 2306, of the Public Records of Indian River County, Florida (hereinafter, "Building A"). In the text of and the exhibits to the Amended Declaration, Building A is referred to as Building A, and Building B is referred to as Building B;

WHEREAS, Building A has six stories, the lowest of which, on the ground level, is divided into parking spaces for the owners of units in the building and also contains a reception area, lobby, elevators, storage rooms and other facilities. Each of the five stories above the ground floor used for parking contains five separate condominium units, for a total of twenty-five units in Building A;

WHEREAS, subsequent to the filings of the two original declarations of condominium of Buildings A and B, subsequent to the delivery by the developer to purchasers of deeds transferring title to units, subsequent to the obtaining of purchase money mortgages on such units by Kentucky Central Life Insurance Company, subsequent to the merger of the two original condominiums, and subsequent to the recording of the Amended Declaration, it was found that the deeds and mortgages on the one hand, and the texts of and exhibits to the Amended Declaration on the other, apply different identifying numerals and letters to each of the condominium units in Building A;

WHEREAS, both the floor plans attached to, and the text of, the Amended Declaration refer to the southernmost apartment on the floor immediately above the ground floor used for parking as Unit "101A". Other units on the same floor are numbered accordingly through 105A. The initial numerals of the three-digit appellations used in the Amended Declaration exhibits and text for each of the units on floors above the first floor proceed logically from one to two (2) through five (5), the easternmost unit on the top story of Building A being known in the Amended Declaration as Unit 505A;

WHEREAS, no extant deed or mortgage refers to any unit known by a three-digit number commencing with "1" (one). The lowest such three-digit appellation occurring in the extant deeds and mortgages is "201". Extant deeds and mortgages do reveal five units in Building A with three-digit appellations commencing with the number six (6), and progressing from 601A to 605A;

WHEREAS, the conflict between the deeds and mortgages, on the one hand, and the exhibits to and text of the Amended Declaration, on the other, results in duplicate and contradictory identifying appellations for each of the units in Building A;

WHEREAS, the aforesaid conflict operates to cloud the titles of unit owners and mortgagees of units in Building A, and it is therefore in the interests of such unit owners and mortgagees to take such action or actions as shall resolve and set to rest the aforesaid conflict;

WHEREAS, the unit owners and mortgagees of both Buildings A and B of the Condominium desire to resolve the said conflict through appropriate amendments to the Amended Declaration, and the amendments to the Amended Declaration

Prepared by:
Kramer, Roddenberry, Palmer, Jaffe & Palmer
3339 Cardinal Drive, Vero Beach, Florida 32960

and its text and exhibits contained in this present document are intended to resolve the aforesaid conflict through the conforming of the identifying appellations for each of the units in Building A as used in the Amended Declaration, its text and exhibits, to the identifying appellations used in the extant deeds and mortgages, and thereby resolve the conflict between the said deeds and mortgages on the one hand, and the text of and exhibits to the Amended Declaration on the other.

NOW, THEREFORE, the undersigned, being all of the record owners and mortgagees of units in KENTUCKY CLUB CONDOMINIUM, a condominium lying in and being located upon lands in Indian River County, Florida, more particularly described as follows:

Lots 4, 5, and 6, Block 14, THE OCEAN CORPORATION
